SILVEREXPRESS™

As a shipper, you need a logistics partner that understands your business and market. We're a shipper too. QuadExpress is the logistics division of a global mega-shipper responsible for moving billions of pounds of time sensitive-freight every year.

You benefit directly from a network of truly experienced business advisors who work to understand your business first, then develop a custom "one size fits one" solution to help your business succeed and grow. QuadExpress specializes in developing a sustainable, reliable plan that will add immediate value to your supply chain. Put our experience and assets to work for your company.

DOMESTIC TRANSPORTATION

Your shipment solution is the right fit, every time, with our comprehensive domestic transportation solutions and trusted carrier network. By leveraging the deep resources of our parent company, Quad/Graphics, your needs will be met with greater flexibility at a lower cost.

We make all your shipping needs simple with a variety of options for domestic shipments, including:

- Less-Than-Truckload
- Full-Truckload
- Ground Expedited

CROSS-BORDER TRANSPORTATION

Whatever you need to ship, wherever you need to ship it, QuadExpress has you covered from door to door. Our decades of experience with LTL, partial truckload, and FTL cross border transportation is enhanced by our strategic locations in Mexico and Canada. All documentation needed is handled internally, including export declarations, commercial invoices, letters of credit, consular legalization, and export licenses. Documents are then transmitted electronically to the destination for expediting, providing you with ease of use – and ease of mind – for your cross-border shipping needs.

AIR FREIGHT

Your shipment will arrive where it needs to be, when it needs to be there, with our full range of air freight delivery services. Import Specialists will optimize your logistics process and analyze inbound programs to determine your needs from the following services:

- Customs clearance
- Break bulk
- Product distribution
- Value-added import services

Whether same day, next day, two day, or three to five day deferred shipments, we will work to understand your challenges and provide logistics solutions that are the right fit in both cost and timing.

OCEAN FREIGHT

With a network of partners in more than 120 countries, QuadExpress can easily coordinate your ocean imports and exports at 90 plus international ports. We can also handle all documentation up front for ocean shipment services, including export licensing, AES filings, declarations, commercial invoices, letters of credit and consular legalization. Trust your critical international moves to a partner with experience and a proven history of success.

SILVEREXPRESS™

SilverExpress is a proprietary Transportation Management System (TMS) provided to you free of charge. This time-saving tool takes the mystery out of your shipping challenges. SilverExpress enables you to easily request quotes, generate orders, track shipments, conduct reporting, and much more.
